

Practice Problems on Acid-Base Chemistry - Answers

1. For each of the following acid base reactions place one of the arrows inside the box to designate the extent of the reaction.

2. Use curve-arrow notation to show electron flow in each of the following reactions and draw the structure of the product formed in each instance.

3. Use curve-arrow notation to show electron flow in each of the following reactions and draw the structure of the product formed in each instance.

