Williamson Ether Synthesis

To produce the phenoxy (strong base/nucleophile) either, NaH (sodium hydride), NaOH or KOH can be used.

The alkyl halide has to be a 1° alkyl halide. Secondary alkyl halides under these conditions mostly produce elimination products by an E2 mechanism.