

United Nations Speaker on Campus

Thursday, February 24, 2011

Thinking of international work after graduation? Interested in today's most urgent global challenges? Come listen to and speak with Dr. Balasubramaniam Murali, Deputy Chief and Programme Adviser for the United Nations Development Programme.

Dr. Murali's talks will focus on development issues in Afghanistan, career paths to the United Nations, and the U.N. Millennium Development Goals targeting poverty, hunger, education, equality, health and the environment. Hear stories of global struggle and uncommon courage. Students from all majors welcome! His presentations are open and will include:

DEVELOPMENT CHALLENGES IN AFGHANISTAN

12:00 – 1: 00PM, Ingraham Hall, Room 206

YOUR FUTURE WITH THE UN: A CAREER TALK

4:30 – 5:30PM, Memorial Union, Tripp Commons

GLOBAL PROGRESS REPORT ON THE UN MILLENNIUM DEVELOPMENT GOALS

7:00 – 8:30PM, Memorial Union, Tripp Commons

Murali's visit is being hosted by the Center for Russia, East Europe, and Central Asia, Center for South Asia, Global Health Initiative, Global Studies, and Go Global! @ UW-Madison, International Learning Community, International Student Services-Millennium Development Goals Awareness Project, Model United Nations, and WUD-Global Connections.
