

Discovering Careers in Health Care and the Life Sciences

Join us for the fifth panel in the lecture series:
Discovering Careers in Biomedical and Life Sciences Research
Monday, March 26th from 6:30 - 9:00 PM
Hector DeLuca Forum, Wisconsin Institutes for Discovery, 1st floor

Part 1: UW Biomedical Researchers speak on challenges and rewards from 6:30 - 7:40 PM

- Michael Sussman Professor, Inventor, Entrepreneur, and Director
- Melanie Ivancic Graduate student in Biotechnology
- Eric Landsness Graduate student working in Sleep and Consciousness
- Randolph Ashton Asst. Prof, Biomedical Engineering
- Caroline Alexander Assoc. Prof, McArdle Lab for Cancer Research

Part 2: Life Sciences Research from 7:50 - 9:00 PM

- Lucas Moyer-Horner Director, Undergraduate Program at Institute of Biology Education
- Daniel Young Professor, Entomology
- Carrie Laboski Assoc. Prof, Dept. of Soil Sciences
- Jake Vander Zanden Professor, Zoology
- Sara Yeo Graduate Student in Life Sciences Communication
- Alex Latzka Graduate Student in Zoology
- TBD Student or Junior Researcher in Ecology or Plant Sciences

Co-sponsored by the Wisconsin Institute for Discovery and the Center for Pre-Health Advising

