Section 6: Laboratory Safety Training Documentation of Training

Track required training using the table below. A separate sheet should be used for each training course and/or training session.

CONTROL CONTRO
Title of Training: Chem 607 Laboratory Safety
Training Performed by:	Chemistry Department Faculty and Staff
Description of Training:	This course is required for all graduate students in the chemistry department.

The course is a general introduction to laboratory safety and includes presentations related to: general laboratory safe practices, safety information, departmental disposal procedures, chemical safety, electrical safety, biological safety and radiation safety.

Name (print)	Signature	Date